

Emergency Order 2020-6 (Amended)

CITY OF BOULDER ORDER RELATED TO DECLARATION OF LOCAL DISASTER EMERGENCY

A disaster emergency was declared by the city manager on March 14, 2020. At the March 16, 2020 special council meeting, city council confirmed and extended the emergency declaration until further notice. Pursuant to Section 2-2.5-7 "Powers," B.R.C. 1981, the city manager finds a need to issue this Order in order to protect the health, safety and welfare of persons or property within the city or to otherwise preserve the public peace or abate, clean up or mitigate the effects of any disaster emergency.

- 1. All individuals anywhere in the City of Boulder are ordered to stay at their place of residence. To the extent individuals are using outdoor spaces, they must, at all times and as reasonably possible, maintain social distancing of at least six feet from any other person when they are outside their residence. Individuals may leave their residences only for Essential Activities, Essential Governmental Functions, or to operate Essential Businesses, all as defined in Section 6, below. Individuals experiencing homelessness are exempt from this Section 6 but are strongly urged to obtain shelter. Governmental and other entities are strongly urged to make such shelter available as soon as possible and to the maximum extent practicable (and to use COVID-19 risk mitigation practices in the operations of such shelters).

- 3. All public and private gatherings of any number of people occurring outside a single household or living unit are prohibited, except for the limited purposes as expressly permitted in Section 6, below. Nothing in this Order prohibits the gathering of members of a household or living unit.
- 4. All travel, including, but not limited to, travel on scooter, motorcycle, automobile, or public transit, except Essential Travel and Essential Activities as defined below in Section 6, is prohibited. 5. Additionally, the city manager strongly encourages all Essential Businesses allowed under this Order to take all available practical measures to safeguard the particularly vulnerable population of individuals aged 60 and over by developing a schedule to establish separate hours of operation so that those individuals can patronize the businesses in a manner that insulates them from other members of the population.
